A message from Councillor Cathy Curry

Kanata North welcomes hundreds of new families to our community, from places near and far, every year. Maybe it's our friendly residents or our beautiful greenspaces...maybe it is the attraction of jobs in the thriving technology sector, as home to Canada's Largest Technology Park with 540 companies in our Special Economic District. Whatever the reason, we are so glad you chose Kanata North!

If you are reading my message right now, likely you are a newcomer. Welcome!

With newcomers arriving from countries around the world almost every day, we're excited to welcome you and help you get started in Canada.

We are hoping that this booklet will help guide you during your first few days, weeks, and months in Ottawa.

There are many organizations and resources available to help, and we hope this information is useful to point you in the right direction.

The Kanata North Team and I are also here to help. You can reach us by email (cathy.curry@ottawa.ca) or by phone (613-580-2474). Alternatively, we are happy to help you in-person at the Kanata North City Councillor's office at 2500 Campeau Drive, Kanata, ON, K2K 2W3. Please drop by and say hello!

1 Your First Week

Settling into Kanata North can feel overwhelming during your first week, but this guide is here to help you access essential services and resources. Below are the key tasks you should prioritize in your first week to make the transition smoother.

1. Applying for Your OHIP Card (Ontario Health Insurance Plan)

The OHIP gives citizens and permanent residents access to Ontario's public health care system. To apply, visit a Service Ontario office with the following required documents:

- Proof of Canadian citizenship or OHIP-eligible immigration status. If you're a permanent resident, this could include the following document: Permanent Resident Card, Confirmation of Permanent Residence (IMM 5292, 5688), Canadian Immigration Identification Card, or Record of Landing (IMM 100)
- An original, printed or digital/electronic document that proves you live in Ontario: It can be your valid Ontario driver's license, temporary driver's license, utility bill, mortgage, rental or lease agreement, bank account statement, insurance policy, or phone bill.
- An original document that confirms your identity. This document must include your name and signature. It can be your passport, credit card, Confirmation of Permanent Residence (CoPR), valid Ontario driver's license or temporary driver's license, or student card., among others.

(This is what an OHIP card looks like)

At the ServiceOntario office, you will receive a form to fill out and have your picture taken for your card. Children under 16 do not need to have their picture taken. To speed up the process, you can download the form at Registration for Ontario Health Coverage \(gov.on.ca\). Once completed, please bring it with you to ServiceOntario.

You can book an appointment online before going to a Service Ontario centre at Book a ServiceOntario appointment | ontario.ca or by phone at 416-326-1234 | Toll-free: 1-800-267-8097 | TTY: 416-325-3408 | Toll-free TTY: 1-800-268-7095

2 Housing

Buying or renting a property as a new immigrant can be very challenging. There are several factors to consider, such as neighborhood, type of house, documentation, credit score, etc.

The best resource for renting or buying a house is the Realtor.ca and Rentals.ca website.

There are other websites where you can find great opportunities, too, such as Facebook Marketplace, Kijiji, and. However, be careful and watch for scams that are more likely on unregulated websites.

Good to know!

Types of houses

Detached: A single dwelling unit stands alone, is not attached to other buildings, and is independently owned.

Row Unit / Townhouse: One dwelling unit of a group of three or more attached, self-contained dwelling units of similar design and size, each unit separately owned.

Semi-Detached: One of a pair of self-contained dwelling units, often of mirror image design, attached by a common wall but detached from other buildings, separately owned from one another.

Apartment: One unit of a complex of self-contained units lying within a low, mid or high-rise building, offering common areas such as hallways, parking lots, stairwells, etc.

Stacked: One unit in a complex containing individual residences stacked on top of each other like apartments, but all contained in a single structure resembling traditional row houses. Units are often multi-level. Each unit has a separate entrance and is separately titled.

Buying a house is an important step in anyone's life! But buying a house as a new immigrant makes this milestone even more special! Consider finding a realtor and mortgage broker that you trust to help you navigate through this critical moment in your life.

TYPES OF HOUSES IN CANADA

Important!

According to Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation (CMHC), your monthly housing costs should be at most about 39% of your gross (before deductions) monthly income. These costs should include your mortgage payments, property taxes and heat costs. Your monthly debt load should be at most 44% of your gross monthly income. This includes your mortgage payments and other debts, such as car loan or credit card payments.

You can find more information at Buying a home in Canada
- Canada.ca and First-Time Home Buyer Incentive | CMHC \(cmhc-schl.gc.ca\)

Always keep in mind that landing any job – even an entry level job that you're overqualified for – is still an achievement, bringing you one more step towards your goal.

Good to know!

You can plan your trip in advance through the [Travel Planner \(oc transpo.com\)](http://Travel Planner (oc transpo.com)) or download the Transit App for iOS or Android.

Driving in Ontario

When you move to Ontario, you can use a valid license from another province, state or country for 60 days. After 60 days, you need to switch to an Ontario driver's license. Whether or not you can exchange your original license for a full one will depend on where you got your initial license from and how long you've been driving. Find more information about Exchange an out-of-province-ce driver's licence | ontario.ca

How to apply?

You'll need to apply in person at a Drive Test centre. Make sure to have your out-of-province driver's license in hand, as well as documents that show proof of driving experience and that verify your identity. Here are the requirements:

- Visitors to Ontario who want to drive while here must be at least 16 years old and have a valid driver's license from your own province, state or country
- If you are visiting Ontario for more than three months, you will need an International Driver's Permit from your own country.
- If you become a permanent resident of Ontario, you must get an Ontario driver's license.

You may be required to:

- take a vision test.
- bring originals of your accepted identity documents and driving qualifications
- pay the applicable fees.
- fill out an application form (where you will state how long you have been driving)

The test is composed of three steps:

- Knowledge test: Available without an appointment. It takes approximately 20-30 minutes to complete and has questions about road signs, rules of the road, etc. You must earn a total score of at least 80% to pass the test. If you are unsuccessful, you can pay the fee and try again. To study for the Knowledge test, download the The Official Ministry of Transportation \(MTO\) Driver's Handbook \(ontario.ca\)
- Vision test: Completed at Drive Test centres.
- Road test: A "hands-on" test on the road, evaluated by a driving examiner. You must book this test at drivetest.ca

5 Healthcare

Canada's healthcare system is publicly funded and managed by the Province of Ontario. Under this system, all Canadian residents have access to medically necessary hospital and physician services without paying a fee.

If you are experiencing a medical emergency, please call 9-1-1 for assistance. Please see Section 14 at the end of this booklet for additional emergency health phone numbers.

Family health care

Family doctors are usually the primary health care provider in a non-emergency situation. They address medical needs for you and your family and will also be the ones to provide a referral if you need to see a specialist. Finding a family doctor accepting new patients is challenging but extremely important, especially if you are a newcomer.

How to get a family doctor?

The first step is to register for Health Care Connect, and a nurse will search for a doctor or nurse practitioner who is accepting new patients in your community. You can find more information here: Find a doctor or nurse practitioner | ontario.ca

The second step is to search for physicians and ask if they accept new patients. Being proactive when searching for a family doctor is a must. Expand your search to other neighborhoods or communities.

Currently there is a shortage of doctors and family health care in our area. It may be a long wait before you are able to find a family doctor.

Drop-in clinics

Walk-in clinics provide medical care for people who do not have a family doctor or have one and are unable to reach them. You can see a nurse or doctor, often without an appointment at a walk-in clinic, and get advice, assessment and treatment for minor illnesses and injuries such as cuts, bruises, minor infections, sprains and skin complaints.

Ottawa Public Health (OPH)

Ottawa Public Health (OPH) provides public health programs and services to individuals and communities while advocating for public policies that make our city and its residents healthier.

Resources:

“Are you new to Canada?” is an activity guide to help new-comers navigate through the challenges and excitements of moving to a new country: Newcomers and Diverse Populations \(ottawapublichealth.ca\)

The OPH also offers a program developed to raise awareness about the importance of mental health in all areas of our lives called “have THAT talk.” This program has a dedicated space for newcomers and diverse populations. have THAT talk \(ottawapublichealth.ca\)

7 Drinking Water

Did you know you don't need to filter or boil tap water?

Ottawa's drinking water quality is one of the best in the world, and consistently meets all Federal and Provincial standards. The city of Ottawa produces approximately 275 million liters of safe, clean drinking water each day! The City of Ottawa is responsible for distributing water to approximately 950,000 residential, commercial, and industrial customers. We're responsible for:

- More than 3,000 kilometers of water mains

- 14 reservoirs
- More than 23,000 hydrants
- More than 48,000 valves

8 Personal Finances

Banking systems are different all around the globe. It is essential to understand how the Canadian system works and start to adapt to it. The first step, outlined in Section 1, is to open a bank account.

Then, you should learn about the different types of taxes, how to fill income tax forms, transfer money between countries, and start building your credit score.

What is a Credit Score?

A credit score rates a consumer's creditworthiness and ranges from 300 to 900. The higher the score, the better a borrower looks to potential lenders. A credit score is based on credit history: number of open accounts, total debt levels, repayment history, and other factors. Lenders use credit scores to evaluate the probability that an individual will repay loans promptly.

Factors that positively impact your Credit Score:

- Make your payments on time.
- Don't use more than 30% of the limit of your credit card.
- Avoid creating debts.
- Diversify your credit.
- Space out your credit card and loan applications

Consult the financial advisor of your bank institution for more information- on how to build a better credit score: Getting your credit report and credit score - Canada.ca

Taxes in Canada

The collection of taxes varies according to each province, and these amounts are invested in services like education, health, infrastructure, transportation and more.

- HST: 13% tax charged on most goods and services that you purchase, with revenue to the provincial and federal governments.
- Property Tax: If you own a home, the City will mail you a tax bill for your property. If you rent a home, the property tax is included in your rent. More information: Taxes \(Ottawa.ca\)

- Income tax: Each year, you will need to complete a tax return with the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA), online or by mail. Deadline is April 30. There are volunteers and professionals available to help you complete your tax return. Find out more about Free tax clinics - Canada.ca and Personal Income Tax \(Canada.ca\).
